WEBINARS/TRAINING

► Social Pedagogy in Relationship-Centred Practice Course

Certificate in Social Pedagogy introduces students to social pedagogy — a holistic, relationship-centred framework used in social care, education and community work. It focuses on how to build meaningful, reflective and ethical professional relationships with individuals, groups and communities of all ages. The course helps learners develop a clear, practical framework for building meaningful professional relationships, improving reflective practice, and responding thoughtfully to complex human situations. It is particularly valuable for those seeking to enhance their effectiveness, confidence and well-being in caring or people-focused roles.

More information on the course can be found here - SETU | Certificate in Social Pedagogy in Relationship-Centred Practice

An online application can be made here - Part-Time Courses Application Form

The course is €450 and the first class is onsite in Wexford and the rest of the course is online.

SURVEY

► Invitation to Participate in National Stakeholder Survey: Understanding community needs and preventing drug and alcohol use and related harm

Feidhmeannacht na Seirbhíse Sláinte
Health Service Executive

The Health Service Executive (HSE) is undertaking a National Needs Assessment for the Prevention of Drugs and Alcohol in Ireland, coordinated by the National Health Improvement Team (Public Health). As part of this work, they are inviting professionals and organisations from across sectors to complete a short online survey.

The survey seeks to capture the perspectives of those working with children, families, young people, communities, and underserved groups, including those whose work focuses on health, wellbeing, education, community development, and social support.

All responses will be treated anonymously and reported in aggregated form by our research partner, Ipsos B&A, and will be used solely for research purposes to inform future initiatives. We greatly appreciate your contribution to this important work. The deadline for completing the survey is 12th January 2026

Please follow the link below to complete the survey:

LITERACY

► Adult Literacy For Life (ALL) Collaboration & Innovation Fund 2026 is open

📌 Calling all community groups working to create literacy-friendly spaces!

The #AdultLiteracyForLife (ALL) Collaboration & Innovation Fund 2026 is open! If you have a collaborative and innovative partnership initiative that could benefit adults with unmet #FinancialLiteracy, #Literacy #FamilyLiteracy or #DigitalLiteracy needs, you can apply to the Fund. Find more information about how to apply at www.adultliteracyforlife.ie/fund. Applications close on Thursday, 22 January 2026 at 12 pm.

The Adult Literacy For Life (ALL) Collaboration and Innovation Fund provides funding to collaborative and innovative projects and activities that:

- support adults to improve their literacy, numeracy and digital literacy, and
- help organisations and services to be literacy aware and friendly.

In Ireland, 1 in 5 adults have difficulty with reading, writing, or basic tasks like filling in forms, understanding health information, or helping their children with homework. This fund helps create projects that make a real difference in people's lives.

In the last 3 years, this funding has allowed organisations that work in the public, not-for-profit, community and voluntary sector to support thousands of learners. There have been over 250 projects supported through the ALL Collaboration and Innovation Fund.

Read about the range of previous projects here.

If you have a project that you would like to discuss please contact me.

Kind Regards

Fund

New Rethink Ireland fund to invest €1.1 million in community-led change across Munster and Wexford

24 November 2025: Rethink Ireland has launched Impact Fund 2025, a €1.1 million initiative designed to support innovative, community-led projects across Munster and Wexford. The fund, established by Rethink Ireland in partnership with the Department of Rural and Community Development and the Gaeltacht, as well as a suite of philanthropic donors, will back up to eight high-impact projects strengthening social inclusion, wellbeing, and environmental resilience at a local level across the south of Ireland.

Applications are now open at rethinkireland.ie/open-funds/ and will close on Friday 16 January at 1pm. Rethink Ireland is the national funding body supporting the most innovative non-profit organisations and social enterprises working to create a more just, equal and sustainable Ireland.

Impact Fund 2025 is created by Rethink Ireland and the Department of Rural and Community Development and the Gaeltacht, in partnership with the Parkes Family, Limerick; the Estate of Mary Coffey c/o Pat Toomey, Tipperary; the Hospital Saturday Fund; The Luan Fund, Cork; Ed Murphy, Wexford; Turas Nua and The Ireland Funds.

To be eligible to apply for Impact Fund 2025, projects must meet the following criteria:

- The project must address a critical social issue
- The project proposed must be innovative in an Irish context
- The project must be based on the island of Ireland and must make its main impact in Munster or county Wexford
- The project must have potential and a desire to scale or replicate in Ireland
- The project must provide evidence that it is up and running, or has been tested at least in a minimal way
- Applicants must come from an entity with a not-for-profit legal form, e.g. a company limited by guarantee, a co-operative, a trust or a charity

Who is a Young Carer?

This is a very difficult question to answer, in the 2022 Census, 4800 young people under age 15 were self-identified as being Young Carers, research by Family Carers Ireland however estimated in 2020 that the number is over 66,000 young people, and the conference project team believe this figure is underestimated.

Young Carers are deemed as young people under the age of 18

Young adult Carers are aged 18-24

This conference is for both young carers and young adult carers. We do suggest that no one under the age of 12 attends unless accompanied by a parent or guardian, due to the nature of some of the content.

Please view this video to understand the role of a Young Carer <https://youtu.be/6miJJXdWUVQ> There is no minimum threshold for the amount of responsibility a young person has to be considered a Young Carer. It is unique to everyone.

Background and Team

The project is funded via Erasmus+ KA154 Youth Participation funding and is led by Shannika Greene and Saoirse Hayden, both 19 year old young carers from Roscommon and Leitrim. They lead a team of 8 young people aged 13 – 21, who were all members of the Roscommon Young Carers Project.

The project coach is Faye Hayden who is the Director Services at CAIM Empowers Social Change and Inclusion Consultancy and was the Roscommon Young Carers Coordinator from 2020 – 2023.

The first of its kind, National Young Carers Conference is supported by the Office of the Children's Ombudsman and will be attended by Dr Niall Muldoon, and Professor Philip Jaffe who is the Vice Chair of the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child. We aim to reach 400 people at the event.

The event will be opened by President Catherine Connolly and will include the voice of the young carer, and research presentations from Dr Sarah Donnelly of UCD (Carer Harm) and Professor Breda Maloney of UL (Impact of being a Young Carer on Senior Cycle Participation).

The event is operated by young carers for young carers (see separate sheet for description of young carers) and is also open to key decision makers in the lives of young carers, including educators, youth/social/health care workers, politicians and parents/guardians. The event MC will be well known youth advocate, Cara Darmody.

Additionally, there will be information stands hosted by Spunout, Children's Ombudsman, Family Carers Ireland, Carers Alliance, Leargas, and many fun activities for young people, including an appearance by The Kabin Krew, VR activities, photo booth and much more – including a goody bag for every young person.

Theme:

'The Real Young Carers of Ireland'

To present an accurate picture of life as a young carer, exploring topics that are 'hard to hear' and not openly discussed, whilst also celebrating the important role that young carers lay and the positive skills they develop and experiences they have.

Raising awareness of the challenges faced and taking an action focused approach at the conference to how to mitigate and resolve those challenges. Securing commitments from key decision makers.

Topics:

- Impact of Caring on young people in education (primary to third level), health, social life.
- Adulthood of young carers
- Violence in the home (sibling to sibling and parent to child in cases of disability/illness e.g Autism, ADHD, Dementia, Brain injury)
- poverty and Deprivation
- Mental Health Challenges
- Social Isolation and Loneliness
- Caring in the EU – welcoming groups of young carers from the 3 other countries participating in the NEXUS project. Nexus – connecting research, policy and practices to support young carers Italy, Estonia, Greece.
